Susan,

I decided to put together some Power Point slides to help keep our discussion next Tuesday on track. Here's a draft - mostly taken from other presentations I've done over the past few years. Some slides are just background info and would just take a few seconds.

I still have to complete a few placeholder slides, but I wanted to get this to you to see if you have any corrections, suggestions, or additions. Please insert yourself into the discussion wherever and whenever you want. Thanks for adding us to your schedule.
